MAY 27 1949

Major General A. R. Bolling, GSC
Acting Director of Intelligence
Department of the Army
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear General Bolling:

The operational procedure proposed in your letter of May 26th will be welcomed by this Agency, and it should serve all our needs for [] material most admirably.

The CIA liaison officers to the Army, [] have been instructed to consult with the Intelligence Division [] Control Officer, Major Whalen, and to work out with him the arrangements necessary for implementation of the proposed procedure.

I should like to say again that the cooperation being extended to CIA by the Intelligence Division in this matter is very keenly appreciated.

Sincerely,

signed - will be hand-carried by O.C.D.
R. H. HILLENKOTTER
Rear Admiral, USN
Director of Central Intelligence
